

order.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: No, a residence is not a polling place. Are you talking about where a person lives in your amendment?

SENATOR WITEK: Well, we restrict this...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Witek, please answer the question. Does your amendment deal with a person's home?

SENATOR WITEK: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: All right. Now do sidewalks and streets pass in front of people's homes?

SENATOR WITEK: Just as they do in front of schools and polling places.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Does a person, under the constitution, have the right to make free use of the public streets and sidewalks?

SENATOR WITEK: Do they have the right to make free use in front of the schools and polling places?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Witek, can you understand English?

SENATOR WITEK: I can.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Am I speaking English?

SENATOR WITEK: I am just saying that those issues have already been addressed on the other (interruption)...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So are you unwilling to answer the questions? If you are, just tell me because I don't want to waste time. Are you unwilling to answer questions about your amendment?

SENATOR WITEK: I am answering your question in the fashion that I want to answer it, Senator, and...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you. She is not going to answer the question. Let me show you the foolishness we are dealing with, and I think it is sheer stupidity to bring an amendment like this, and then pretend not to be able to understand English.
